

Tales of Times Past

Intergenerational / Intercultural Oral History Program

Do you enjoy a good yarn in the company of all ages and believe that heritage is important?

A special opportunity, proudly sponsored by the City of Cockburn, for all senior members to meet, recall and share your stories of past times

Stories of:

- growing up in the earlier part of the last century
- changes in the environment, technology and society
- living through historical events, both local and worldwide
- the history of Cockburn and surrounding areas.

This free program includes opportunities to retell some of these stories to children at local schools and within the wider community.

Venue: Cockburn Senior Centre
9 Coleville Cres, Spearwood

Dates: Commencing Friday 24th February 2012
Time: 9.30am - 12pm

Bookings and further information:

Program Coordinator
Vasanti Sunderland Ph: 9383 3790

City of Cockburn
Coordinator Cockburn Seniors Centre
Paul Gabbett Ph: 9411 3870

Morning tea will be provided.
Transport can be arranged.

