

The Liberty Swing

City of Cockburn

wetlands to waves

An accessible swing for children who use a wheelchair is located at Manning Park, Hamilton Hill, as part of the universal playground.

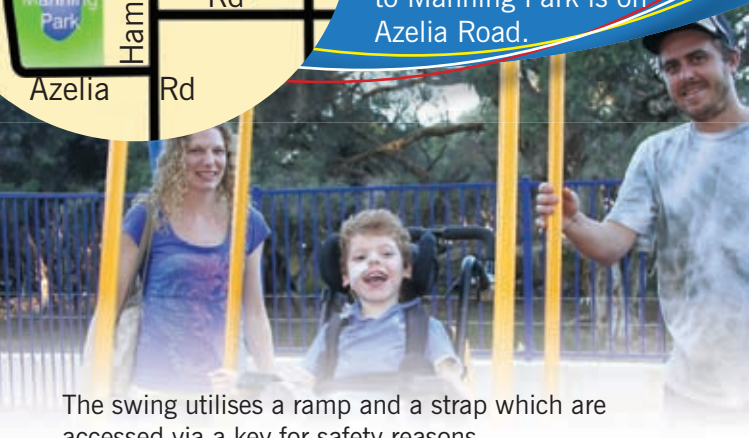

Supported by:

The Liberty Swing is located at Manning Park, Hamilton Hill, as part of the universal playground.

Manning Park is located off Hamilton Road. Entry to Manning Park is off Azelia Road.

The swing utilises a ramp and a strap which are accessed via a key for safety reasons.

THE KEY IS AVAILABLE FROM

The Azelia Ley Museum in Manning Park

Mon - Wed 8.30am - 4.30pm. Sun 1.30pm - 4.30pm.

The front counter City of Cockburn

Mon - Fri 8.30am - 4.30pm.

Please follow all instructions whilst using the swing.

- Only the person using the swing and their carer to be in the swing area at any time.
- Carer to remain in the swing area with the person at all times.
- Carer to be over 16 years of age.
- The Maximum combined weight of the person and the wheelchair must not exceed 250kg.
- The City of Cockburn will not be liable for any injuries resulting from inappropriate use of the equipment.

Community Organisation and families that support children with disabilities are encouraged to become key holders.

For more information please contact the Disability Access and Inclusion Officer on 94113444 or visit www.cockburn.wa.gov.au