Policy Purpose

Health studios are a use class that contribute to the vibrancy and economic wellbeing of the City of Cockburn. However, in recent years there has been a proliferation of health studios in non-residential areas that present as a variety of types such as personal training classes, group-based fitness classes, boxing/and self-defence classes, dance classes or a combination of all of these. While generally a positive addition to the commercial fabric of the City, health studios can present several challenges to land use planning, including provision of sufficient car parking and retrofitting existing buildings for this use.

The purpose of this policy is to provide clarity and direction on the types of health studios within the City of Cockburn as well as general siting and design criteria for such land uses and information required by the City to assess such applications which the City's Town Planning Scheme No. 3 (TPS 3) does not provide for.

Definitions:

Active Floor Space Area (AFSA): The area of all floors/levels within the internal finished surfaces of permanent walls of a building, used for physical exercise, recreation and sporting activities, but excludes all areas designated for machines such as pin-loaded equipment and cardio machines, as well as car parking areas, stairs, toilets, cleaners cupboards, lift shafts, motor rooms, escalators, tea rooms, plant rooms, lobbies between lifts facing other lifts serving the same floor, and areas set aside as public space or thoroughfares and not for the exclusive use of occupiers of the floor or building.

Exercise Machines: Pin Loaded equipment and cardio machines, but does not include equipment such as free weights and stretch areas which are considered active floor space area.
