Celebrate Cockburn's multicultural community at 2nd annual Mosaic Festival

Celebrate Cockburn's diverse multiculturalism at the Mosaic Festival at Treeby Reserve on Saturday 22 March.

The free festival from 3-8pm is an opportunity to learn about Cockburn's rich community by embracing the strength and beauty of cultural diversity during Harmony Week (17-23 March).

The second annual festival is part of the City's successful Cockburn Live events series for 2024-25, and will feature an array of roving entertainment, cultural performances, stage shows and stalls.

City of Cockburn Mayor Logan Howlett said the inaugural 2024 event delighted crowds keen to celebrate and share their cultures with family and friends, and make new connections.

"Our diverse community is a fantastic blend of many cultures, and the Mosaic Festival is a way to again bring together our many multicultural influences to reveal the beautiful mosaic that is Cockburn," Mayor Howlett said.

"The City of Cockburn is one of the most culturally diverse local governments in Perth's southern metropolitan area, with one in two residents hailing from a culturally diverse background.

"I look forward to seeing the community shine once again at this exciting free event. And it will be exciting, which is why we will also incorporate a Youth Disability Advocacy Network Low Sensory Space. Everyone belongs in Cockburn."

The stage will come alive with performances by Hassan, a talented local acrobat from Africa, and the energetic Bavarian-themed ensemble Oompa.

Other performers will also include an Italian choir, the City of Cockburn Pipe Band, the
