

What happens to your green bin lid? – Video transcript

Ever wonder what happens to your old bin lids when we swap them over?

They are taken to Green Machines Lab in Bibra Lake.

Where they're processed into plastic granules.

These granules are used to produce new plastic products, right here in WA.