

Cultural diversity in Cockburn

This video is presented by the City of Cockburn. It starts with a written message from the City of Cockburn which reads “Embracing, celebrating and harnessing the advantages of our cultural diversity’. This is followed by residents of Cockburn saying ‘Welcome to Cockburn where everyone belongs’ in their own languages.

The languages represented in order of appearance are Nyungar, Serbian, Mandarin, Auslan, Tagalog, English (English accent), Russian, Hokkien, Maori, Cantonese, Yoruba, Italian, English (South African accent), French, Hakka, Shona, Welsh, Amharic, English (Australian accent), Spanish (Venezuela), Arabic, Spanish (Mexico), Malay, Croatian, Punjabi, and Portuguese.

The video closes with a written message from the City of Cockburn which reads ‘Building harmonious, progressive and socially cohesive communities.’