

Good News Story – Amalie

I think I've always kind of just sung like around the house. I think it's always really been like my thing, you know?

My name is Amalie, I'm 14 and I'm from Perth, Western Australia.

My Dad, I remember being little and he always used to play the guitar for me and sing – that was really nice. But definitely my Grandmother, she was an opera singer and she studied music and I think that is a huge inspiration in what I do now.

I enjoy competitions because it gives me something work at, but it's definitely more enjoyable to just have like a platform or just like a show that I can go that I don't have to compete that I can just sing.

The first ever community thing that I did or performance that I did was at an old person's home and I sang like an Ella Fitzgerald song. It was like, I think, it's just a good way of also gaining practice but I think it's just nice to see people smile.
