---

Good Morning ladies and gentlemen, girls and boys.

My wife Patricia and I are delighted to join with you today for the official launch and official opening of Maraboo Island at the Port Coogee.

I acknowledge the Whadjup people of the Nyungar Nation the traditional custodians of the land on which we have gathered today and I pay respect to their Elders, past, present & emerging.

I acknowledge:

- Jamie Clarke, Director Megara and other staff members;
- Members of the Port Coogee community who have already invested in the marina lifestyle;
- Those of you who are here today to explore the lifestyle choices available in this phase of Port Coogee;
- Ladies and gentlemen, girls and boys.

Another milestone has been achieved with today's official opening and the opportunity to join the Port Coogee community and experience the extraordinary resort-style living that awaits you on Maraboo Island.

Today's spring weather, combined with the display of luxury cars and boats courtesy of Barbagallo together with live music and food choices for all, certainly adds to the ambience of this coastal location.

Today's event marks the completion of the civil works and for many the opportunity to explore the locality and see the land and home packages that are available.

Enjoy the day and the ambience of this great location.

Thank you.
