DECISION MAKING IN LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Local Governments in Western Australia make decisions through a structured framework established by the Local Government Act 1995 and other relevant legislation.

The two primary decision-making bodies within local government are the Council, which serves as the principal decision-making entity, and the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), who holds specific functions as defined by the Local Government Act. Additional powers and functions may be delegated to these bodies by other legislation.

Legislation designates decision-making powers using specific terms that refer to the relevant entity, office, or individual. Interpreting the Local Government Act 1995 is relatively straight forward, with "Local Government," typically referring to the governing body itself. Other legislation may use different terms but will often include a Local Government through definitions, such as "Permit Authority" in the Building Act 2011 or "Enforcement Agency" in the Food Act 2008.

When legislation specifies "Local Government" for broad discretionary powers, the decision-making authority lies with the Council as the governing body. Conversely, when limited discretion is involved, this may be suitable for acting through administrative processes.

When the term "Council" is used, it indicates that the decision must be made by the Council, by resolution. Terms like "Prescribed Office" refer to specific roles assigned by legislation, such as the Mayor or CEO, where only the person in that role can perform the duties associated with it. For example, the mayor presides over Council meetings as required by section 5.6 of the Local Government Act 1995. These duties cannot be performed by the Council or the CEO unless the CEO holds the prescribed office.

Legislation sometimes requires a person to be "authorised" to perform certain functions, with some provisions limiting this authorisation to local government employees, while others may allow contractors or non-employees to be authorised, depending on the legislation.

It is unreasonable and impossible for every decision to be fulfilled by the Council of a local government. This is why a number of Acts administered by local governments allow the peak decision-making body (Council) to delegate power to certain committees, its CEO, and in some cases employees or other persons.

DELEGATED AUTHORITY

Section 59 of the Interpretation Act 1984 prescribes the overall framework for how delegated authority must be structured in Western Australian law.

In summary:

1. The written law (head of power) must include an express power to delegate, which specifically enables a person (the delegator) to make a delegation.
2. In that same written law, there must be an express power or duty conferred or imposed on the delegator, and it must be capable of being delegated. This means that:
 - a. The power or duty proposed for delegation must be written in the same law as the express power to delegate; and
 - b. That written law must not prohibit the power or duty from being delegated or contain limitations or conditions, which the proposed delegation exceeds.
3. The power to delegate cannot be delegated.
4. Delegations must be in writing (the instrument of delegation); and
5. Delegations must be advised to the delegate in writing.

Note that nothing prevents the delegating body or person from taking back a delegation or sub delegation or making the relevant decision on a particular issue. Similarly, a delegator does not have to exercise the delegation and may refer the decision back to the delegator.

Similarly, section 59(2) provides that:

The delegation of a power shall be deemed to include the delegation of any duty incidental thereto or connected therewith and the delegation of a duty shall be deemed to include the delegation of any power incidental thereto or connected therewith.

The purpose of delegating a power is generally aimed at dealing with matters that are routine, may have a time constraint, can change rapidly, or is simply more efficient.

The delegations of authority contained within are made to Committees pursuant to Section 5.16 and to the Chief Executive Officer pursuant to Section 5.42 of the Local Government Act 1995 (the Act) and, where listed, some of these functions are delegated by the Chief Executive Officer to City of Cockburn employees pursuant to Section 5.44 of the Act. All delegations made by the Council must be by an absolute majority decision.

Section 5.43 of the Act provides that the following are decisions that cannot be delegated to the Chief Executive Officer:

Delegation Register

City of Cockburn

- Any power or duty that requires a decision of an absolute majority of the Council.
- Accepting a tender which exceeds an amount determined by the local government for the purpose of this paragraph.
- Appointing an auditor.
- Acquiring or disposing of any property valued at an amount exceeding an amount determined by the local government for the purpose of this paragraph.
- Any of the local government's powers under sections 5.98, 5.98A, 5.99 and 5.100 of the Act.
- Borrowing money on behalf of the local government.
- Hearing or determining an objection of a kind referred to in Section 9.5.
- The power under Section 9.49A (4) to authorise a person to sign documents on behalf of the local government.
- Any power or duty that requires the approval of the Minister or Governor.
- Such other duties or powers that may be prescribed by the Act.

The Act allows for the Chief Executive Officer to delegate any of their powers to another employee, this must be done in writing. The Act allows for the Chief Executive Officer to place conditions on any delegations if required.

A person to whom a duty or power is delegated under the Act is a 'designated employee' under s5.74(b) of the Act and is required to:

- disclose relevant interests
- complete a Primary Return
- complete Annual Returns

Although these requirements relate only to delegations under the Act, compliance requirements are applied uniformly to employees exercising delegated authority. Any sub delegations by the Chief Executive Officer will be updated in this register as and when required, without presentation to Council, as delegations of power by the Chief Executive Officer to employees are to be determined by the Chief Executive Officer.

ACTING THROUGH

Employees do not always need a delegation or authorisation to carry out their tasks and functions on behalf of the local government. A function may be undertaken through the "acting through" concept. This means the person fulfills or carries out a function and has no discretion/decision making, in carrying out that function – the outcome will not be substantially different regardless of the circumstances or who exercised the power.

Section 5.16(4) of the Act provides that: ...

(4) Nothing in this section is to be read as preventing a local government from performing any of its functions by acting through another person.

Delegation Register

City of Cockburn

Similarly, s5.45(2) Act provides that:

Nothing in this Division (Division 4 - Local Government Employees) is to be read as preventing – a) a local government from performing any of its functions by acting through a person other than the Chief Executive Officer; or b) a Chief Executive Officer from performing any of his or her functions by acting through another person.

The key difference between a delegation and acting through is that a delegate exercises a decision-making function in his or her own right. For example, an employee may pay an account or issue an approval if directed to do so by another employee who has the power to make such a decision and chooses to “act through” another employee. The employee who has paid the account or issued the approval carried out the function but did so at the direction of the employee who had the decision making or delegated authority to do so.

AUTHORISATIONS

Authorised persons (and who under some Acts do not necessarily have to be employees of the local government but often are) are given powers to do certain things under an Act, Regulation, or local law; usually to issue an infringement, make inquiries, enter on to property, issue a notice or to enforce a provision.

An authorised person, once appointed, is responsible for fulfilling the powers and duties assigned under law to an authorised person, which may be specified or limited in an Act or Regulation, or the certificate of authorisation.

An authorisation appoints a person to an office prescribed in law (to perform functions of that office) or appoints a person to perform a specific function prescribed in law.

An authorised person cannot delegate their powers and duties to another person.

REGISTER OF DELEGATED AUTHORITY

A register of delegations, being this manual, relevant to the Chief Executive Officer and other employees is to be kept and reviewed at least once every financial year. The Register is required to be publicly available and is published on the City’s website.

If a person is exercising a power or duty that they have been delegated, the Act requires them to keep necessary records to the exercise of the power or discharge of the duty. All officers are required to maintain relevant records when exercising the power or discharge of duty delegated to them.

Delegation Register

City of Cockburn

The written record is to contain:

- how the person exercised the power or discharged the duty;
- when the person exercised the power or discharged the duty; and
- the persons or classes of persons, other than council or committee members or employees of the local government, directly affected by the exercise of the power or the discharge of the duty.

In addition to delegations made in accordance with the Act, a number of delegations are also made to the Chief Executive Officer, or directly to other officers in some instances, in accordance with the provisions of other legislation.

The aim of the delegated authority register is to assist with improving the time taken to make decisions within the constraints allowed by the relevant legislation. This is consistent with the City's commitment to a strong customer service focus.

Each instrument of delegation describes the function being delegated and the relevant statutory reference which is the source of power for the exercise of the function. Also included is a reference to related documents such as policies of the Council which may provide guidance in the exercise of the delegation. This delegated authority register will be reviewed in accordance with the Act on an annual basis.

Dear Mr Brown

VEHICLES PARKED ON VERGES OF MAIN ROADS AND HIGHWAYS.

Recently I have been approached by more than one metropolitan Local Government for a delegation to enable those local governments to issue parking infringements for vehicles offered for sale on Main Roads and Highways verges (where these form part of the Main Road or Highway).

I understand that the Local Laws of most Metropolitan Local Governments for regulating parking exclude from the Parking Region to which those Local Laws apply:

“...any road which comes under the control of the Commissioner of Main Roads unless the control of parking and parking facilities on that road has been delegated by the Commissioner of Main Roads to the local government.”

I understand that this exclusion is based on Schedule 1 of the Model Local Laws for Parking developed in conjunction with WALGA. Those Model Local Laws have been enacted by most, if not all of the metropolitan Local Governments.

Subsection 16(2) of the Main Roads Act provides:

“Subject to the provisions of section 15[], the powers of any local government over any highway or main road shall not be deemed to be taken away by this Act, but the exercise of such powers shall be subject to the control and direction of the Commissioner.”*

* Section 15 doesn't appear to have any impact in the current scenario.

The effect of section 16(2) of the Main Roads Act is that the Commissioner may control and direct the powers of Local Governments in respect of highways and main roads but the provision does not otherwise prohibit the exercise of such powers. The power of local governments to regulate parking on Main Roads or Highways is one of those powers.

There has been some confusion between some Metropolitan Local Governments and Main Roads about whether a delegation is actually required under 16(2) of the Main Roads Act. Main Roads officers have discussed this issue with WALGA with a view to resolving the confusion in so far as section 16(2) relates to parking.

In order to clarify the powers of your Local Government in relation to regulating parking on Main Roads or Highways and to avoid the need for amendment of each metropolitan local government's local laws on parking, a direction under section 16(2) of the Main Roads Act is warranted.

Please accept this as a direction under section 16(2) of the Main Roads Act that:

- a) Council may control parking on the verges of any Main Roads and Highways in your district (where these verges form part of the Main Road or Highway) other than those mentioned in paragraph "b" below but only for the purposes of:
 - i) prohibiting parking on those verges including any parked vehicles offered for sale on those verges; and
 - ii) enforcing any such prohibition.
- b) Council may not control parking on any part of any freeways in your district.

This direction is not intended to affect any existing arrangements Council has for the regulation of parking on the carriageway of any Main Roads or Highways in your district.

Please note that I do not mean to suggest that any Local Government is required to exercise any relevant powers.

If you require any further information please contact Theo Hazebroek on 9323 4545. In reply please quote file reference 04/9019 (D04#22839).

CLARIFICATION OF DIRECTION

INFOPAGE

WESTERN AUSTRALIAN
LOCAL GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

To: Chief Executive Officer From: Bruce Wittber
Organisation: All Metropolitan Councils Date: 30 June 2005
Reference: 06-012-03-0004
Subject: Vehicles Parked on the Verge of Main Roads and Highways

In late October 2004 following discussions with the Association, the Commissioner of Main Roads issued a directive under section 16(2) of the Main Roads Act regarding the regulation of parking on the verges of main roads and highways. This came as a result of some confusion of the authority that Local Government had in regard to managing parking, under their Local Laws on Parking, on these types of roads

The Commissioner in giving the directive stated that the respective Councils could control parking on the verges of the Main Roads and Highways in their district with some specified exceptions.

Following that advice several Councils indicated that it still raised the question of whether this included control over the "footpaths" on the verge. Further discussion has enabled the Commissioner to provide further advice in letter to the Association which clarified the position that was intended.

The Commissioner has advised as follows:

I confirm that my intent when using the word "verges" ... was for that word to include any footpath which forms part of a main road or highway. I note that in many cases the proclamation of main roads and highways specifically excludes the footpaths in which case the care, control and management of the footpath would almost invariably already lie with the relevant local government.

I trust that this now clarifies the situation and that where required you now have the necessary authority to use the various powers under the relevant local law to control parking.
